

Welcome

Welcome to Issue 3 of the Year 7 Newsletter. Year 7 have all been working hard and demonstrating the values of Kindness, resilience, reflective and part of a community.

We have had lots of wonderful feedback from staff throughout the academy of how well the year 7's have settled, how polite and well mannered they are. Thank you for you as parents for your continued support.

Our current rewards focus is home learning completion. Over the next few weeks leading up to half term we will be running a competition where any student who completes all homework set on class charts will receive a raffle ticket. Lucky winners will be drawn randomly and win a prize.

TEAM

Celebrating Success in Year 7 Teams

Over the last two weeks, our Year 7 football and netball teams have achieved remarkable success, demonstrating outstanding teamwork and resilience during some thrilling matches.

Congratulations to all who represented the academy so admirably. Keep up the great work!

Mrs Egerton visited the Year 7 assembly to present an exciting opportunity for students to register for The Sutton Academy Pumpkin Patch event. Parents can enrol their children through the Arbor App. A fee of £5 is required, which includes the cost of the pumpkin and access to all the enjoyable activities offered during the event.
