Tracking-1 Data in October 2021
CURRENT GRADE	Attitude To Learning	Independent Study	PREDICTED GRADE for Summer '22	To progress further I need to:
E	Inconsistent	Poor	D	Read a variety of texts at home and focus on spellings and punctuation.
E	Excellent	Good	C	Continue the research topic into different music styles which encompass the use of brass instruments.
BP	Good	Good	M	Focus on your set tasks more so that you complete them fully and to a high standard.

Current Grade

From internal assessments, the knowledge and skills evidenced so far this year show the grade that your child would achieve if they sat their final examinations now. Parents can use this grade to track improvements over time for their child as they cover more of the course content.

Attitude To Learning

(Your child's attitude, effort and behaviour in lessons)

Independent Study

(Your child's standard of study/work on their own)

- These are graded:
- 1 - Excellent
  - 2 - Good
  - 3 - Inconsistent
  - 4 - Poor

Predicted Grade

This is a professional prediction of what the teacher believes your child will achieve by the end of their studies, using evidence from internal assessments and coursework as appropriate.
