

Year 13 Key Stage 5 Assessment Tracking-1 Report - December 2023

Minimum Target Grade

This is the minimum grade your child will be expected to at the end of Year 13. These grades are set using a system which allocates target grades based on a student's prior GCSE results, so that positive progress can be achieved.

Attendance and Conduct

Your child's attendance percentage along with a summary of their achievement and behaviour points as at a specific date (also available in the ClassCharts App)

Student Details:

| Name            | Tutor Group |
|-----------------|-------------|
| Example Student | 13 S        |

Attendance as of (Date TBC):

Achievement Points as of (Date TBC):

Behaviour Points as of (Date TBC):

| Attendance Target (97% - 100%) | Achievement Points | Behaviour Points |
|--------------------------------|--------------------|------------------|
| 98.9 %                         | 98                 | 12               |

Achievement Report:

| Subject          | Minimum Target Grade | Predicted Grade for Summer '24 | Attitude to Learning | Independent Study | To progress further I need to:  |
|------------------|----------------------|--------------------------------|----------------------|-------------------|---|
| English Language | C                    | D                              | Inconsistent         | Poor              | Read a variety of texts at home and focus on spellings and punctuation                                |
| Music Technology | C                    | C                              | Excellent            | Good              | Continue the research topic into different music styles which encompass the use of brass instruments. |

Predicted Grade

This is a professional prediction of what the teacher believes your child will achieve by the end of their studies, using evidence from internal assessments and coursework as appropriate.

Attitude to Learning

Your child's attitude, effort and behaviour in lessons.

Independent Study

Your child's standard of homework.

These are graded:
Excellent
Good
Inconsistent
Poor

Progress Comment

This is a concise statement of how your child can progress further in each of their subjects.